

How to Get the Entry Price on MT4 Mobile

1. Open MT4 □
 2. Go to Quotes □ → Find a currency pair (e.g., EUR/USD)
 3. Tap on the currency pair → Click Trade
 4. You will see two prices:
 - Bid Price (Sell) (red)
 - Ask Price (Buy) (green)
 5. If you place a Buy order, your Entry Price will be the Ask Price.
 6. If you place a Sell order, your Entry Price will be the Bid Price.
 7. Click Buy or Sell, and your trade will execute at the market price.

Example of Market Prices on MT4

Let's say you open MT4 and see:

EUR/USD:

- Bid Price (Sell): 1.0998
 - Ask Price (Buy): 1.1000
 - If you buy, your entry price = 1.1000
 - If you sell, your entry price = 1.0998

How to Check Your Entry Price After Trade Execution

1. Go to MT4 → Click Trade □
2. Under Orders, you will see your entry price for open trades.
3. Example: If you bought EUR/USD, you might see:

- Buy 0.01 lot at 1.1000

Now, you can set your Stop-Loss (SL) & Take-Profit (TP) based on this entry price! □
